

Visa Preparation for African Energy Week 2024

As the conference approaches, we wanted to highlight the vital importance of visa preparations, to avoid any last-minute complications.

To ensure your participation at African Energy Week, we kindly request that you take the following actions:

- Review visa Requirements: Familiarize yourself with the visa requirements for traveling to South Africa as required by the respective authorities. Please refer to the visa page on the AEW website at Visa - African Energy Week Cape Town | AEC Week
- Registration: Please confirm your registration for the African Energy Week 2024 by making payment online through the provided link (African Energy Week Cape Town | AEC Week | Registration \(aecweek-registration.com\)). For sponsors and exhibitors, the confirmation of registration will form part of your package. Once your registration is confirmed, you will be able to request a visa Invitation letter, which should be included in your visa application.
- For Nigerian applicants, kindly refer to the attached guidance issued from the High Commissioner of Nigeria.
- It is vital to ensure that all requested documentation is submitted to the authorities for smooth application.
- Yellow Fever Vaccination: Kindly ensure the validity of your Yellow Fever Certificate by the relevant authorities. If you have not been vaccinated for Yellow Fever, please check with your embassies to determine if this vaccination is a requirement for your visa application. If the yellow card certificate is not valid, your visa application will be declined.
- Submit visa Application: Please submit your visa application as soon as possible. Providing accurate and complete information.
- Arrange Embassy Appointments: If required, we recommend promptly scheduling appointments with the relevant embassies or consulates.
- Visa Application Reference Number: After applying for your visa, you will receive a receipt with your Reference Number from consular services. Please share this Reference Number with us using the same email address you received the visa letter from.

By initiating the visa application process early, you can mitigate any potential challenges and increase the likelihood of obtaining your visa in a timely manner.

If you require any assistance or have specific queries regarding visa procedures, please do not hesitate to reach out to us visa@aecweek.com

Your presence at African Energy Week is highly valued, and we eagerly anticipate welcoming you at African Energy Week 2024.
